Applying for a Permit

A completed permit application form should be submitted 14 days prior to the use of land applied for.

Criteria for Issuing Permits

Permits are available for keeping livestock on residential land or land less than 4,000m² in area and for keeping more than the specified number of certain animals.

If the land is within a Special Use Zone as defined in the Nillumbik Planning Scheme, no permit can be issued unless the provisions of the Register of Non-Conforming Uses have been met.

When dealing with applications for permits the Council or its delegate will consider the following factors:

- the amenity of the proposed location and the surrounding area
- the location, area and nature of the land, its zoning and its suitability for the use intended
- the siting of the area or structures within the land and proximity to other occupiers
- the effects on the amenity of other land and the health and safety of persons and property
- the type and numbers of animals to be kept
- membership and compliance with any recognised association or standards
- any comments received in respect of the application
- any further information required from the applicant
- any other matters that may apply to the particular application
- the applicant's record in keeping animals, and
- an appropriate permit fee and any refundable deposit required.
