

16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence

Small Community Grant up to $500

Applications open from 27 July to 18 September

Nillumbik Shire Council is committed to preventing violence against women and promoting gender equality.

Small grants up to $500 are available to support awareness raising community led projects in the Nillumbik community that will be undertaken during the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender Based Violence campaign from 25 November to 10 December 2020.

Priorities for funding

Once off costs including:

- Community events and activities
- Artist, consultant or provider fees
- Equipment or promotional materials

Projects must reflect the principles of Council's Gender Equity Policy

Eligibility

- Incorporated non for profit community groups/organisations or unincorporated groups which are auspiced by an incorporated body that will deliver activities/projects in Nillumbik.
- Minimum $10 million public liability insurance
- No outstanding grant acquittals from a previous Nillumbik Shire Council grant.

Exclusions

Grants will not be considered for:

- Ongoing organisational operating costs
- Projects that have received full funding from another source
- Venues that are not accessible eg. no lift or accessible toilet
- Retrospective funding or projects which are not being run during the 16 Days campaign

How to apply

Apply online at

<https://nillumbik.smartygrants.com.au/>

Required supporting materials

Along with your completed application form, you need to provide copies of the following documents:

- Current Public Liability Insurance Certificate
- Quotes for any services or products requested for funding in the application
- Emails or letters of support from partner organisations

Successful projects will be promoted on Nillumbik Shire Council's social media platforms.

For more information contact Jodie Leahy on 9433 3165 or Grants@nillumbik.vic.gov.au